MACHINISTS TO MEET

State Convention of International Association in Norfolk Today.

Will Convene in Central Labor Hall at Noon to Organize District Lodge and Select a Business Agent and State Organizer. Open meeting to-night.

The State Convention of the International Association of Machinists will convene in Central Labor Union Hall, corner City Hall avenue and Bank street, at 12 m. to-day. Delegates will be in attendance from Portsmouth, Newport News, Richmond, Lynchburg, Roanoke, Salem, Alexandria, Clifton Forge, Radford, Crewe, Cape Charles and, perhaps, other points.

The convention was called for the purpose of organizing district lodges, such as are in operation in Eastern, Northern and Western States, and the selection and placing in the field of a business agent and State organizer.

STRENGTH OF THE ORDER. There are in Virginia 1,200 machinists who are members in good standing of the International Association, and it has been determined to strengthen the organization on lines that have made it a power north of Mason and Dixon's line. The employment of a business agent and State organizer is in pursuance of this plan.

Mr. D. J. Reardon is district organizer for Virginia and North Carolina.

AN OPEN MEETING. The State association will hold a meeting with Norfolk Lodge No. 11 at 8:30 to-night, at which addresses will be delivered by several delegates, explanatory of the work of the organization.

Norfolk Lodge will tender the visiting delegates a smoker at the same time and place.

All the machinists of this city and section are cordially invited to the smoker.

A BEAUTIFUL MARRIAGE.

NORFOLK BUSINESS MAN WINS CAROLINA BRIDE.

A special telegram last night from the Virginian-Pilot's Oxford, N. C., correspondent says:

This evening at 1:30 o'clock a beautiful marriage was solemnized at the Methodist Church, which was elaborately decorated with palms, ferns and cut flowers. The contracting parties were Mr. Samuel Baker Markley and Miss Emma Gooch, only daughter of Mr. S. J. Gooch. The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. M. H. Tuttle. The ushers, Messrs. S. W. Minor, W. B. Currin, A. W. Hobgood, and F. B. Black, entered the church and took their places near the altar, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, rendered by Mrs. H. O. Furman. Then came the bride with her maid of honor, Miss Mary Currin, and were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. E. T. Gooch, of Greensboro. The bride, a most beautiful and charming young lady, who had a host of friends, was attired in a handsome castor tailor-made suit, with gloves and hat to match. The groom, a native of Altoona, Pa., has been engaged in the lumber business in Norfolk for some time.

They received a large number of handsome presents consisting chiefly of silver and cut glass.

Mr. and Mrs. Markley, left on the noon train for Norfolk, their future home.

At the Chamberlin.

The volume of business at Hotel Chamberlin, Old Point, is very satisfactory, the list of Sunday arrivals being particularly large. Among the prominent guests who have been there for the past few days are the following: Hon. James K. McGuire, Mayor of Syracuse, N. Y., who has just spent a week there with his wife, Hon. J. G. Bender, Mayor-elect of Albany, N. Y., and Judge Blessing of the same city; Mr. David McMann, Richard Croker's right hand man, and Judge Gorman of New York, with their families, and Mr. Robert H. Sayre, president of the Bethlehem Iron Works, Bethlehem, Pa., and family. These guests spent from one to two weeks at the Chamberlin.

A Dollar Reception.

The Norfolk Woman's Christian Temperance Union has decided to hold "A Dollar Reception" on the evening of December 12. Each member is expected to attend and donate a dollar to the cause, together with an account of how she earned it. Mrs. R. H. Jones, No. 216 Granby street, has kindly donated the use of her house for the entertainment, which will no doubt be largely attended and well patronized.

Sings to-night at Eastville.

Mr. William Crowell left last night for Eastville, where he will sing to-night at a Thanksgiving church entertainment at the Opera House. He will sing several new comic songs. The house promises to be a large one, as the advance sale of seats has been heavy.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

OPENING OF TAZEWELL FROM BOUSH TO GRANBY.

The work of opening Tazewell street, from Boush to Granby streets, is well under way. The trees on the line of the street through the old Tazewell property have been dug up and the grading is now in progress. This end of the street will be forty feet wide, but the street proper will be only twenty feet, the same as the block between Duke and Boush streets. The sidewalks of this block are only five feet, however, while those of the new block will be ten feet. The street will be paved with granite block.

It will not be necessary to tear away the old Tazewell mansion or any portion of it. This will set back a few feet from the northern edge of the street. However, as this portion of the city is planned to be covered with business houses, it is likely that the historic old mansion will be torn down before a great while. The square bounded by Brooke avenue, Boush Tazewell and Granby streets, is the property of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company principally, and it is said that it will be laid off in business lots as soon as Tazewell street is opened. The new theatre, which it is expected, be on Tazewell street, a short distance west of Granby.

Tazewell street will also be extended from Duke street to Dunmore street. A great deal of filling up will have to be done between these streets and a bridge will be constructed over a portion of the distance.

Courtney street, which connects Granby street with Tripoli street near the lower end of the City Market building, is practically an extension of the new Tazewell street. This street at present hardly deserves to be classed above a lane, but it will, it is said, be widened when the vacant space north of the Monticello laundry is improved, which will not be long, judging from the activity in this immediate section of the city.

PAVING DUKE STREET.

The Warren-Scharf asphalt people have begun the work of paving Duke street, from Erasmus street to College Place, with asphalt. The old cobble stone pavement is being used as a foundation for the asphalt.

ACROSS THE ROADS.

CHECK FLASHER TAKEN TO NEWPORT NEWS. Constable Shield, of Newport News, arrived in Norfolk alone yesterday morning, but when he returned he was accompanied by T. D. Somerwell, who is wanted across the Roads to answer the same charge he was arrested here for.

From the officer it was learned that the Newport News police authorities believe they have strong evidence against Somerwell. Mrs. Flemm charges him with beating a board bill, J. J. Jackson charges that he forged two drafts and secured money on them. There is also another warrant against him for check flashing. It is said.

J. P. Ash, of Gloucester Point, is also anxious to secure Somerwell's conviction. He was at Newport News several days ago, having learned that the man had been apprehended, and asked the police to notify him when the prisoner was tried. He says that he has shipped merchandise to the firm of Swain & Somerwell and that he had received nothing but worthless checks for it. He claims that he was "done" for about $50.

It is understood that Somerwell explains the alleged check flashing transaction in this way: A friend in Salem, Va., promised him some money and said that he would deposit it in a Salem bank to his credit on a certain day. After that day Somerwell says he drew checks on the bank covering the amount and there was no money there to meet them, as his friend had neglected to make the deposit.

ARRIVAL OF PASTOR.

REV. R. H. BENNETT IN RICHMOND.

Yesterday's Richmond Dispatch says: Rev. R. H. Bennett, the newly-appointed pastor of St. James Methodist Church, Twenty-ninth and Marshall streets, has arrived in the city. He will enter upon his duties at once.

A public reception will be given Mr. Bennett at the church to-night, affording the congregation an opportunity of becoming acquainted with their pastor. The membership is greatly pleased at the appointment, and are looking forward to a great work at St. James.

Death of Captain Rumrill.

Captain J. E. Rumrill, who has been connected with the Virginia Pilot Association for eight years, departed this life at his boarding house, No. 103 Charlotte street, at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. The deceased was 37 years of age and a native of this city. The funeral will be held from Cumberland Street M. E. Church at 2:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

First Grand Ball.

Columbia Lodge, No. 44, I. O. O. F., will to-night give the first of a series of pleasant balls at Masonic Temple. The committee in charge has made every effort to have all arrangements in perfect shape, and this opening ball will no doubt be a very pleasant affair. Dancing will begin at 8:30 o'clock.

BASEBALL CHAT

Virginia-League Magnates to Meet in Richmond today.

Norfolk and Portsmouth will be represented by Popular Managers. League composed of Four Clubs, but May Be Enlarged to Eight.

Captains Harvey Cunningham and John T. Brady, of the Norfolk and Portsmouth baseball teams, respectively, will go to Richmond to-day to attend a meeting of the members of the Virginia Baseball League, to be held at Hotel Jefferson at 12 m. While these popular baseball magnates will not have the pleasure of eating their Thanksgiving turkey at home, they will no doubt derive genuine pleasure from their efforts to provide the people of the Cities by the Sea with the popular American sport the ensuing season. Norfolk and Portsmouth are hungry for baseball, and if Messrs. Cunningham and Brady succeed in their efforts to get up a strong State League, both they and admirers generally of the game will have much to be thankful for, and the former at least will be willing, it is not doubted, to allow others to eat turkey to-day.

OTHER CLUBS DESIRED.

The Virginia Baseball League now constitutes but four clubs—that is, only four cities have paid their money to the treasurer and are really "in it." These are Norfolk, Portsmouth, Newport News and Richmond. Hampton was admitted at the last meeting, and Mr. Donati, of Richmond, was given the franchise, but the money has not been paid in yet. Petersburg is the sixth city on the circuit, but the league has not yet admitted it, and action on this matter will be taken to-day.

EIGHT-CLUB LEAGUE PROPOSED.

There has been some talk of admitting Danville and Roanoke, making an eight-club league, but it is not believed that this will be done. In fact, if the league should act favorably on this the original object of effecting an organization to give the people of this section good baseball in 1900 will be disregarded. It was the original intention of the promoters to organize a league that would embrace cities adjacent to each other, in this way saving considerable traveling expenses. The section which the league proposes to cover is the most thickly populated in the State, and the magnates believe that it will work to their disadvantage to take in such out-of-the-way places as Roanoke and Danville.

ELKS' OYSTER ROAST.

NORFOLK'S ANTLERED BROTHERHOOD TO-DAY AT OCEAN VIEW.

Norfolk Lodge of Elks, No. 38, will spend to-day at Ocean View, where the members will enjoy a big oyster roast and celebrate the fifteenth anniversary of the institution of the order in Norfolk.

Aside from the parade in Norfolk, there will be no set program. The Elks will assemble at the lodge room, Academy of Music building, at 10:30 a. m. There they will form in line and, headed by the Seaboard Air Line Band, march to Bank street, thence to City Hall avenue, thence to Granby street, thence to Main, thence to Church and Church along Henry street to the Ocean View depot.

There they will take the 11 a. m. train for Ocean View. The oyster roast will be on until 5 p. m. During the day there will be songs, music, off-hand addresses by the members as they are called upon, and fun and a general jolly, good time. At 5 o'clock the Elks will take the train for Norfolk. On their return they will march to their lodge room and there disband.

NORFOLK JUNIORS.

WILL TAKE PART IN BERKLEY FLAG-RAISING TO-DAY.

The members of the Jr. O. U. A. M., of Norfolk, will to-day participate in a public flag-raising at Berkley. Portsmouth Council will also attend. The affair is under the auspices of Berkley Council, Jr. O. U. A. M. The flag will be raised at the Berkley public school. The parade will begin at 1 p. m. and start from the Berkley ferry wharf, on the arrival of the Norfolk and Portsmouth delegations.

Football Today.

This afternoon at League Park, the Columbia, colored, football team will meet Wayland Seminary in a game of football. Columbia is strong this year, and will present the following line-up: A. Harrison, L. H. B.; J. Harrison, R. H. B.; C. Harrison, Q. B.; E. Harrison or W. Harrison, R. E.; A. Banks, R. T.; J. Banks or Craig, L. T.; Clark or H. Hill, R. G.; Jackson, L. G.; Carter, F. B.; Stevens, Center; Goude or Washington, L. E.

SUDDEN DEATH.

JOSEPH HERMAN STRICKEN ON THE STREET.

Joseph Herman, an engineer at the Standard Oil Works in Huntersville, fell in an insensible condition at the corner of Goff and Church streets about 7:15 a. m. yesterday. Early in the morning he went to the stables of the works to look after the feeding of his horses and later returned to his home, corner of Princess Anne road and Church street, for breakfast, and was going back to work at the time of the fatal occurrence. He was seen to fall on the street by three colored men, who ran to his assistance. Finding him still alive they conveyed him to Dr. Baxter's office, but before the latter could render assistance the stricken man breathed his last. Herman had never indicated to his family that he was in ill-health, and his death was a great shock to his household.

The deceased was 55 years of age, and had been employed by the Standard Oil Company for 29 years in the capacity of engineer and general laborer. He leaves a widow and four children. Justice Hawke viewed the body, and on the evidence of the three colored men deemed an inquest unnecessary. The body was turned over to Undertaker Smith for burial to-day.

Big Poultry Receipts.

The Virginian-Pilot sometime ago noted the establishment of a poultry packing house in this city, in connection with the Fuerstein plant. The business of the new concern has grown rapidly and has already assumed large proportions. In one shipment this week the packing house received twelve hundred fine turkeys from Southwest Virginia, especially for the Thanksgiving trade. The live turkey room now contains several hundred fine specimens. The receipts of live chickens have also been heavy, and are all taken by the growing demand. The plant is a very interesting place to all interested in the poultry business.

Mr. John S. Prince Dead.

The friends of Mr. John S. Prince were deeply pained to learn of his death last night. It had been known for several days that he was extremely ill, and yesterday it was given out that his condition was critical. He passed away at 10:30 o'clock. His death was due to acute gastritis.

Mr. Prince was 36 years old and is survived by a wife, five children and three brothers, Messrs. James E. Joseph and Captain M. H. Prince, all of this city.

The funeral arrangements will be announced this afternoon.

Painters' Raffle.

The Norfolk Painters' Union held a raffle last night at Bricklayers' Hall, Main street, between 8:30 and 9 o'clock. The articles raffled were a suit of clothes, valued at $20; an overcoat, valued at $15; $5 worth of underwear, one hat, worth $3, and an umbrella, worth $2.

The drawing of numbers was done by Mr. M. W. Broughton, Jr. The prizes were drawn respectively in the order stated above by G. W. Smith (No. 20½), George Rock (No. 46), George Armstrong (No. 52½), Mr. Quinn (No. 42), W. A. Connor (No. 76½).

The Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company announces that on and after December 1, 1899, a night rate will take effect on its toll lines, between the hours of 6 p. m. and 6 a. m., which night rate will be approximately one-half of the day rate.
